GREGG LINDBERG BEGINS AS BURNSVILLE'S NEW DEPUTY CITY MANAGER JULY 29

Gregg Lindberg will begin work as Burnsville's new Deputy City Manager on July 29. He joins the City of Burnsville after spending the previous 13 years with Three Rivers Park District.

Lindberg began work in the Three Rivers Park District Human Resources Department in 2006, and has been the organization's Human Resources Manager since 2011. He is a former City of St. Louis Park Council Member, serving one term from 2014 – 2018. He is also currently an adjunct instructor at Bethel University, Hamline University and Metropolitan State University.

As Deputy City Manager, Lindberg will oversee the City's Administrative Services Division – including Communications, IT, Finance and the City Clerk's Office. He will also be tasked with serving a key role in strategic decision making as part of the City's executive leadership team.

"We are excited to welcome Gregg to our team, and look forward to his talents and experience serving the organization and community," said Burnsville City Manager Melanie Mesko Lee. "His strengths will complement our organization's desire to continue fostering Burnsville as a creative, innovative, and welcoming place to work and live."

Lindberg holds a Master of Arts in Public Administration from Hamline University; and a Master of Arts in Organizational Leadership as well as a Bachelor of Arts in Business, Administration and Human Resources Management from Bethel University.
