BURNSVILLE 2015 BUDGETING PROCESS UNDERWAY

Opportunities for Residents to Provide Input Online and In Person

From police and fire protection, to the streets we drive on, to the hundreds of acres of parks and open spaces enjoyed by families and neighbors – the City of Burnsville offers a variety of services meant to keep Burnsville a great place to live, work and raise a family.

To provide these services, the City – just like any household – budgets to prioritize spending. Every year, Burnsville’s City Council and City officials develop a budget that ensures the City won’t spend more money than it brings in, and places the highest priority on important services.

To give residents an opportunity to participate and provide input in the 2015 budgeting process, the City will once again hold a number of public meetings at Burnsville City Hall, 100 Civic Center Parkway.

The 2015 Budget will be discussed at the following meetings:

(Meetings start at 6:30 p.m. Dates are subject to change):

Monday, Aug. 11	Discuss possible level for the maximum property tax levy
Tuesday, Sept. 2	Adoption of the maximum property tax levy
Mid-October	Video “Budget Open House” available online
Tuesday, Oct. 28	Department presentations
Monday, Nov. 10	Review and discussion
Tuesday, Nov. 25	Review and discussion
Tuesday, Dec. 2	Consider adoption of the 2015 budget

All City Council meetings and work sessions are also cablecast live and replayed on Burnsville Civic Television Channel 16 (for cable subscribers) and streamed online at www.burnsville.org/meetings.

The Council also welcomes email comments, which can be provided via a special 2015 Budget Planning page at www.burnsville.org/budget. A video explaining the City’s budget process will also be available on the website in mid-October.
