LEARN TO SKATE FALL REGISTRATION OPEN SEPT. 16 AT 5 P.M.

Fall Skating Season Highlighted by Special Free Skating Event Sept. 13

Whether a figure skater or a hockey player, every skater has to start somewhere. The Burnsville Ice Center's "Learn to Skate" program is specially designed to assist skaters of all ages and levels to enhance their skating skills.

Group and private lessons are available for the fall season. Professional instructors work with students on:

- Skating Skills—getting up from a fall, basic marching, backward skating, etc.
- Figure Skating Skills—swizzles, jumps, spins, spirals, etc.
- Hockey Skating Skills—hockey hops, quick starts, power turns, hockey stops, etc.

Registration opens on Tuesday, Sept. 16 at 5 p.m. online at www.burnsville.org/lts and in-person at the Burnsville Ice Center, 251 Civic Center Parkway, Burnsville, Minn.

Free Skating Event Sept. 13

Celebrate the fall skating season at the Burnsville Ice Center at a FREE skating event on Saturday, Sept. 13 from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. Enjoy an exhibition by the Burnsville Minnesota Valley Figure Skating Club and have fun with friends. Attendees will receive both admission and skate rental at no cost.

For more information about Learn to Skate fall registration visit www.burnsville.org/LTS or call 952-895-4657. For more information about the free skating event call 952-895-4651.
