BURNSVILLE COMMUNITY TELEVISION OFFERS FREE WEEKLY ORIENTATION CLASSES

Held Each Thursday from 6-7 p.m. at BCTV Studio

Are you a Burnsville resident or organization looking to have your voice heard? Do you want to share a talent with the community? Use the resources at hand — and make television magic at Burnsville Community Television (BCTV).

BCTV provides quality, local programming that is important to the community. In addition, they also provide the opportunity for the community to make television through public access.

Interested individuals must attend one of BCTV's orientation classes, which will be held weekly every Thursday starting Oct. 2, 2014. Classes are held from 6 – 7 p.m. at BCTV's studio, located on the second floor of Burnsville High School at 600 E. Hwy 13, Room C214.

Orientation classes are FREE and open to Burnsville residents, Burnsville-Eagan-Savage School District 191 members/students and Burnsville non-profit organizations. Participants must be age 13 or older.

In this one-hour class participants will:

- Be given a guided-tour of the studio by BCTV staff
- Learn the basics of public access television
- Learn how they can benefit from BCTV resources
- Be shown equipment that is available to use
- Learn about BCTV class offerings
- Receive expert advice on how to get started
- Receive a BCTV can cooler

Prior registration is preferred, but is not necessary.

To learn more visit www.burnsville.tv or call Tina Wilson at 952-641-1354. To register for a class, please email tina.wilson@ci.burnsville.mn.us.

Orientation classes will be held on most Thursdays. BCTV may move or cancel classes due to scheduling conflicts. Please check the BCTV calendar at www.burnsville.tv or contact Tina Wilson at 952-641-1354 to verify class times.
