PEACEFUL RESOLUTION TO INCIDENT INVOLVING MAN BARRICADED IN HOME

A several-hour standoff between police and a man who had barricaded himself inside a home has been resolved peacefully.

At 8:59 a.m., the Burnsville Police Department was dispatched on a call to perform a welfare check on an individual who was reported to be suicidal. Police located the man alone in the home on the 13900 block of Sunset Lake Drive. The man refused to leave the residence, and made several threats to harm himself and others.

Police negotiators spoke to the man throughout the morning and early afternoon via telephone and text message. At approximately 3:40 p.m., the man exited the house peacefully and was taken into custody.

Access to the neighborhood, which had been restricted during the incident, has been restored, and residents in the area were provided an "all clear."

The Burnsville Police Department was assisted in this incident by the Eagan and Bloomington police departments, as well as Burnsville Public Works.
